The Performing Arts Committee and its Director plan, promote, and present programs in partnership with the Wisconsin Union Theater staff. Specifically, the Performing Arts Committee Director, in partnership with the program advisor, manages the implementation of the current Theater season and oversees the selection process for the following year's Theater season. Programs should be of cultural interest to the UW campus and the community at large. In some cases, the Committee will partner with outside promoters or groups (co-sponsors) to produce season events. In addition, the Director represents the Wisconsin Union and Wisconsin Union Theater to artists, managers, and talent agencies.

Director Duties:

- Chair committee meetings and foster a comfortable, friendly, and open environment for all committee members.
- Hold general office hours (typically 10 hours a week) and be responsive to communication from committee members, the advisor, and artists/managers.
- Appoint Associate Directors for the term of office and train them to advance and manage events.
- Establish regular meetings with Associate Directors to ensure that all programs and advancing responsibilities (hospitality, etc.) are successfully implemented.
- Step into advancing and managing roles if Associate Directors are unable.
- Work with advisor and other Union Theater staff to become familiar with contracts, booking, budgeting, and general theater operations.
- Establish programmatic goals with committee members and implement them in programming the Theater season.
- Solicit ideas, input, and opinions from both the committee and external sources (co-sponsors, University departments, etc.) to inform programming pursuits and decisions.
- Work with Marketing and Communications teams to promote the current season and develop initiatives to increase student awareness of and attendance at season events.
- Write and submit grant requests if requesting funding from an outside organization such as Wisconsin Union Directorate, ASM, or the Wisconsin Union Association.
- Actively pursue all forms of diversity and integrity for the Theater season and committee and uphold the goals of the WUT, Wisconsin Union Directorate, and the Wisconsin Union.
• Provide oversight of the WUD PAC budget which includes providing budget projections and tracking expenses throughout the year.

• Assist WUT Theater Director in proposing Theater budget to Union Council for the next season year.

• Attend select Theater Staff meetings.

• Attend and actively participate in the World Music Festival, Isthmus Jazz Fest, Concert Series Advisory, and Marcia Léger Play Festival Committee meetings or delegate Associate Directors to participate in one of the committees.
