STUDENT EMPLOYEE ORIENTATION HANDBOOK

WELCOME TO THE WISCONSIN UNION!

Thank you for joining our team! For more than 100 years, the Wisconsin Union has served UW-Madison and the greater Madison community as the heart and soul of this great university. Students come to the Union because it's a place they can call home. Providing them with world class customer service plays an important part in creating that special atmosphere. As a Wisconsin Union employee, you help ensure every customer experiences the Wisconsin Union at its very best.

Most people know how special the Terrace and Rathskeller are, but as an employee you have the opportunity to work with others to ensure the Union's continued popularity and relevance to campus. Whether you work in a dining unit, building services, a programming department, or an administrative office, your contributions play an essential role in the Union's success.

The Wisconsin Union is unique in that our success comes from a strong partnership between student employees, volunteers, and permanent staff. As you get to know the Union better, we hope you will see the advantage in having a wide range of different experiences, wisdom and perspectives found here.

In addition to providing employment opportunities, the Union offers other ways for employees to get involved. If you are interested in working with the governing body of the Union, you can join one of four Union Council subcommittees. If you want to help plan student programs, you can volunteer on a Directorate programming committee. Finally, if you are interested in strengthening communications between student employees, permanent staff, management, and volunteers, you can get involved in the Student Employee Advisory Group (SEAG).

As you begin your employment, we enthusiastically welcome you to the Union family. We hope you enjoy working here; this handbook will provide you with the information you'll need to be successful here. Remember we are all employees and customers of the Union. As a valuable employee, you make the difference in helping the Wisconsin Union achieve its mission of making lifetime connections on the campus, one person at a time!

PERFORMANCE: We promote outstanding internal and external customer service, efficient and ethical business systems, and strong financial performance.

PRESERVING THE PAST, BUILDING THE FUTURE

The Wisconsin Union can trace its origin to UW President Charles R. Van Hise's 1904 inaugural address in which he urged the construction of a "commons" to provide for the communal life of instructors and students in work, in play, and in social relations. Three years later, in 1907, Iron Cross, the senior men's honorary society, organized The Wisconsin Men's Union. They leased space from the campus YMCA, until they were kicked out for alleged improper behavior and unsavory acts, such as playing billiards and smoking cigars. In 1912, the organization moved to the former president's house at the corner of Park and Langdon Streets.

After World War I, Walter Kohler, the president of the Board of Regents and later governor, decided the University had waited long enough for a Union. Because the state legislature refused funding for a non-academic building, he organized a nationwide campaign to raise money from students and alumni. One of every two students pledged $50 or more during the campaign, for a grand total of almost one million dollars.

In 1927, as completion of the building neared, a university committee composed of students, faculty, and alumni developed a constitution for the newly named organization, The Wisconsin Union. Its purpose: To provide a common life and cultivated social program for its members: students, faculty, alumni and patrons. Its motto: Sociotate Crescit Lumen, "light is increased through human relationships." The committee proposed a governing board, known as Union Council, which would have a student majority and a student chairperson, a unique concept still to this day.

Memorial Union opened on October 5, 1928 and was erected and dedicated to the men and women of the University of Wisconsin who fought in our country's wars. In the beginning certain areas, such as Der Rathskeller, were restricted to men. This changed in 1942, during World War II, when there were 3.6 women for every man on campus. For the first time, women were allowed access to Der Rathskeller. The first woman student president was elected to serve in the 1943-44 academic year.

In 1935, the Board of Regents designated the Wisconsin Union as the UW-Madison's Division of Social Education, officially recognizing the Wisconsin Union as part of the educational program of the university.

In 1951, the Memorial Union Building Committee was reorganized as the Memorial Union Building Association (MUBA), an educational and charitable non-profit corporation dedicated to promoting the interests, welfare and development of the Wisconsin Union.

In the 1960's, with the campus expanding, plans were drawn up for a second union to serve the southwest part of the campus and opened in the spring of 1971.

In the spring of 2006 UW-Madison students voted on the Student Union Initiative to renovate Memorial Union and build a new and improved Union South paid through student segregated fees, private donations and program revenue from Union operations.

On April 15, 2011, Union South opened as one of the greenest Unions in the country. Union South provides the campus community with multiple dining options, a climbing wall, a movie theater, and the largest conference center in Madison, Varsity Hall.

The Memorial Union is also being renovated, beginning with the theater wing of the building, to improve accessibility and enhance amenities. The renovation team will be working with the State Historical Society to ensure the historical integrity of the building is preserved.

If you are interested in getting involved or would like to find out more, please visit: www.unionreinvestment.wisc.edu for the most up to date information.

UNION COUNCIL

Union Council is the governing board for the Wisconsin Union, responsible to the Board of Regents through the Chancellor of UW-Madison. Union Council meets monthly and is composed of 15 voting members: nine students and six non-student members representing faculty, alumni, and Union Staff. Union Council determines the scope of Union programs, services, and operations through the establishment of program goals, free program allocations, building policies, and operational recommendations.

The Wisconsin Union is subject to all state and university rules and regulations. All Wisconsin Union funds are used in accordance to state laws and statutes. Employees of the Wisconsin Union are employees of the University and subject to all University personnel procedures. The Wisconsin Union budget, approved by Union Council, is submitted to the UW-Madison campus, the Board of Regents, and the State of Wisconsin Legislature for approval.

Union Council has four standing committees that monitor different aspects of the organization, make in-depth studies, report findings, and make recommendations to Union Council. The standing committees are:

- Administration
- Facilities
- Dining Services
- Program & Leadership

If you are interested in joining a committee, contact the respective Assistant Director.

DIRECTORATE (WUD)

Directorate is the programming board of the Wisconsin Union responsible for social, cultural and recreational programs sponsored by the Union. Directorate coordinates the work of committees and clubs, discusses problems, reviews program budgets, and recommends building policies to Union Council. Directorate is made up of four officers, a president, three vice presidents (leadership development, program administration, and public relations), and 10 committee directors.

- Alternative Breaks
- Art
- Distinguished Lecture Series
- Film
- Global Connections
- Hoofers
- Music
- Performing Arts
- Publications
- Society and Politics

Each committee meets weekly and is comprised of student volunteers who plan and implement various programs at the Wisconsin Union. Employees are encouraged to join a committee or to give suggestions about programs or policies. For further information and contacts, visit www.union.wisc.edu/wud.

STUDENT EMPLOYEE ADVISORY GROUP (SEAG)

Email: SEAG@union.wisc.edu

The goal of SEAG is to open, foster, and maintain communication and positive relations between student employees, permanent staff, management, and student volunteers.

SEAG:

- is composed of student employees from all areas of the Union.
- has representation proportional to employment levels.
- meets often to discuss student employee issues and concerns.
- sponsors the Student Employee of the Month.
- sponsors various student receptions, forums and recognitions annually.

FUNDING

The Wisconsin Union receives no tax money. A majority of our funding comes from food and retail sales and money generated through paid programs. Slightly less than a quarter is allocated from student segregated fees. As the Wisconsin Union is a membership organization, segregated fees automatically make students members of the Union. The small remainder is gathered from various sources.

From a financial perspective, the Union is a unique social, recreation, and dining entity. When we have an operating surplus, it is turned back to its members in the form of more services, programs, and facilities. Every employee influences the Union's ability to increase revenue. Budget information for your work unit is usually available monthly, while budgetary overviews of the entire Union are available at regularly scheduled employee gatherings.

* The Union Building Project Expenses and Revenues were approved through the 2006 Student Union Initiative.

OPERATING PRINCIPLES

The Union has four Operating Principles that guide how we make decisions and plan daily operations at the Wisconsin Union.

- MAKE EVERY DAY AN EVENT
We operate from the perspective of our guests, whether it is a simple one-to-one interaction or a huge conference, and focus on what we can do versus what we cannot.
- HONOR THE GUEST'S PERSPECTIVE
We understand patrons view us as the "Union" so we consistently offer exceptional customer experiences that are personal and respectful.

- BE GREEN

Union South is a leader for green operations on campus, and decisions about sustainability are apparent in the daily operations of the entire Union.

- BUILD COMMUNITY

Our internal community at the Wisconsin Union is a role model of organizational success, dedicated to developing people, positively meeting challenges, and working toward the organization's common good.

AREA BREAKDOWN

The Wisconsin Union is a large organization that is comprised of five distinct areas: Administration, Facilities, Dining Services, Program & Leadership, and External Relations. Most people have heard of the Golden Rule. The Wisconsin Union takes that further and uses the Platinum Rule: Treat others the way they want to be treated!

CREATING RESPECT & CIVILITY*

TURN UNCOMFORTABLE SITUATIONS INTO LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

- Let co-workers know that some behavior is inappropriate.
- Never be afraid to apologize.

JUST BECAUSE EXPRESSIONS OR WORDS ARE COMMONLY USED, DOES NOT MEAN THEY ARE ACCEPTABLE.

- Don't cross boundaries in emotional charged situations.

DON'T DISPLAY OFFENSIVE MATERIALS IN YOUR WORK SPACE OR HAVE IT ON YOUR COMPUTER.

- Show understanding for others' feelings and make efforts to repair relationships.

JUDGING PEOPLE'S ABILITIES BY THEIR APPEARANCE CAN LEAD TO DISCRIMINATION

- Speak up against appearance-based discrimination.
- Listen to and be understanding of the concerns of others.
- Take responsibility for your actions.

CULTURAL OR ETHNIC STEREOTYPES ARE OFFENSIVE.

- Make customers or co-workers aware of stereotypes, and why they are offensive.
- Explore similarities instead of focusing on differences.
- Consider people as individuals.

SPEAK UP AGAINST DISRESPECT.

- Intervene before a problem escalates.
- Defuse tensions by listening and understanding.
- Relate disrespectful behavior to personal experiences.

GREET

- Everyone must receive at least one greeting
- Smile and make eye contact
- Shows the customer that they are our number one priority

UNDERSTAND NEEDS

- Use verbal and visual clues

- Allows us to make a personal connection

- Shows the guest that we respect and appreciate their time

THANK

- It is easy. Just say it!
- "Have a nice day" is never a substitute

LOSS PREVENTION

The Wisconsin Union strives to maintain a loss-free workplace. A strong loss prevention strategy helps keep operational costs down and services affordable. It is the responsibility of every employee to work towards this goal.

INTERNAL THEFT – EMPLOYEE THEFT

Money Theft:

- Taking money from a cash register.
- Allowing someone to remove cash, then reporting missing cash as theft.
- Not ringing up a sale and then pocketing cash.

Merchandise, Food or UW/Union Property Theft:

- Taking food or drink from a banquet set-up.
- Consuming merchandise on premises without payment.
- Taking home work or office supplies or UW or Union property.

Time Theft:

- Punching in before starting work.
- Stopping work but punching out late.
- Providing free/discounted merchandise or food to acquaintances.
- Giving away free food or merchandise.
- Knowingly accepting checks from someone on the bad check list.

Theft of other employees' personal property.

EXTERNAL THEFT - SHOPLIFTING

- Taking unpaid merchandise, concealing merchandise, price altering and credit or check fraud at the Wisconsin Union are all forms of external theft.

SUSPICIOUS PATRON BEHAVIOR

- Always base response to shoplifting on behavior, never on appearance:
 - Sifting through merchandise, but not looking.
 - Carrying large empty backpacks or bags.
 - Hanging out in hard to see areas.
 - Distracting employees while someone else tries to steal.
 - Watching employees closely.
 - "Goose necking:" looking around to see if they're being watched.

OBSERVING SHOPLIFTING

- Observing retail theft (observations MUST stand up in court)
 - Enter establishment without merchandise.
 - Take merchandise off shelf or rack and/or conceal merchandise.
 - Exit area with unpaid merchandise.

WHAT TO DO WHEN YOU OBSERVE THEFT:

- Call UW Police (911) and report location of the activity.
- Do not approach or apprehend the suspect(s).

- Obtain as much information as possible and stay on the phone
- Write down information (physical details of suspects: sex, age, name, markings, weight, height, etc; type of clothing worn; direction traveled; people involved; vehicle description and license plate number).
- Notify Building Managers 265-3000 (MU) or 890-3000 (US) of activity and inform them UW Police have been called.

THE CUSTOMER SERVICE APPROACH

Here are a few safe and easy ways to reduce shoplifting:

- Greet customers (creates a welcoming atmosphere and the attention deters theft).
- Keep area clean and well stocked.
- Verify identity when handling checks and credit cards (confirm signatures).
- Ways to approach the customer
 - "May I help you?" or "Have you been helped?"
 - "I've noticed you standing there for awhile, can I help with something?"
 - "I see you have a _____, I'd be happy to ring that up for you."
 - "Sorry (Sir/Ms) you'll have to exit through the cash register area."

ROBBERY

- DO NOT be a hero! Stay calm and cooperate with the robber.
- When safe, call UW Police, 911, and report location of robbery.
- Close down the area of the robbery. Do not let anyone touch anything.
- Take a moment to write down as much information as possible:
 - Physical details of suspect(s): sex, age, markings, weight, height, etc
 - Type of clothing worn
 - Did the robber touch anything; direction traveled
 - Vehicle description and license plate number
- Contact your supervisor.
- Get names and phone numbers of witnesses.
- Notify Building Managers 265-3000 (MU-Essentials) or 890-3000 (US-CVR) of activity and inform them UW Police have been called.
- Talk to your supervisor and UW Police, give them your information, and inform them of anything else that you think may be relevant.
- Prevention: Always leave your cash drawer open when your unit is closed.

Note: The Wisconsin Union is a state agency; therefore, thefts are prosecuted as a Class A Misdemeanor with a fine of up to $10,000 and up to one year in jail, or a Class H Felony with a fine of up to $10,000 and up to six years in prison. In addition, students can be expelled from the University for theft. Remember: All future employment is adversely affected by such actions.

SECRET SHOPPER SURVEYS

The Wisconsin Union utilizes SeeLevelHX to perform internal audits of customer service, cash handling, and inventory control procedures based on the Union's customer service expectations and cash handling guidelines to properly evaluate employee performance. Supervisors receive a report of a specific transaction and will review it with the employee whose service was evaluated. The purpose of the shopping service is to measure success at achieving general performance standards; however, disciplinary action may result from poor employee performance, where excellent performance may lead to promotion.

TIPPING

As the Division of Social Education, we are officially part of the University of Wisconsin Madison, UW Board of Regents, and the Wisconsin State Government. Union employees are not allowed to accept tips. Employees who accept a tip are subject to disciplinary actions, up to and including termination. If offered a tip, employees will politely decline and explain: "As a University agency we do not accept tips. However, if you would like to acknowledge the work of Union employees, you may make a donation to the Student Employee Recognition Fund."

Circumstances where there is no opportunity to decline a tip will be considered a donation to the Student Employee Recognition Fund, a student advised fund with the expressed purpose of recognizing the collective efforts of all student employees.

EMPLOYMENT CONDITIONS

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

It is the practice of the Wisconsin Union to give priority to UW-Madison students for part-time jobs. As needed, students at other institutions are permitted to be employed as student employees provided they meet one of the following:

- Anyone enrolled and registered for credit at any UW System school excluding UW Extension.
- Anyone enrolled and registered at an accredited institution granting an associate degree or higher (i.e. UW Colleges, technical schools, or other public or private universities).
- In limited circumstances, high school students may be hired provided they meet age and work eligibility guidelines.

Non UW-Madison students will have to present a valid school ID and proof that they are enrolled in classes. If a student withdraws from school, they are no longer eligible for student employment as of the date of withdrawal; their student position will end. Special allowances may be made for graduating students who may work as an LTE until the start of the next semester with supervisor and area's assistant director's approval. Students must notify their supervisor and Human Resources when they are no longer a student as this necessitates a change to limited term employment (LTE) status.

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Human Resources keeps work-related information on all employees. As a state agency, information related to an employee's rate of pay, title, start and end date is public information. In most circumstances, no other personal information is released by Human Resources without written consent of the employee. Information kept in an employee's personnel file is relevant to an employee's hire, status, wage, performance, termination, etc. Background checks, exit interviews, accident reports, and other non-employment related information are kept in separate confidential files. You have the right to review your personnel file; however, you need to make an appointment with Human Resources staff to view your personnel file. Requests are typically met within 24 hours.

ACCOMMODATIONS

It is the policy of the UW-Madison to provide accommodations for qualified individuals with disabilities who are employees or applicants for employment. The Wisconsin Union will adhere to all applicable federal and state laws, regulations, and guidelines with respect to providing reasonable accommodations as required to afford equal employment opportunity to qualified individuals with disabilities. Employing units/departments will provide reasonable accommodations in a timely and cost-effective manner and employment will not be denied.

EMPLOYMENT ELIGIBILITY VERIFICATION (I-9)

The Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 requires all employers to verify the identity and employment eligibility for each new employee. Every employee must fill out an electronic I-9 form, as required under federal law, on or before your first day of employment. In addition, the law requires you to provide documents that verify your identity and employment eligibility on or before your first day of employment.

The most common forms of identity are an original, unexpired Passport or original, unexpired driver's license/student ID and a social security card/birth certificate. A list of additional acceptable documents is provided by Human Resources. If you fail to return with your documents before your first day of work it will result in an immediate dismissal of employment with the Wisconsin Union. All shifts will be cancelled and any further work performed for the Union is not authorized. International student employees will usually need to bring additional documents for the I-9 process. It is helpful to bring your passport, visa, I-94 Record Card and an I-20 or DS-2019.

BACKGROUND CHECKS

The Wisconsin Union has identified several positions for which a criminal records investigation is required. Positions that require a background check:

- Computer database users that have financial impact, access Human Resources records, process payroll payments, or have global access to files.
- Positions authorized to issue refunds for $15 or greater.
- Key (master/sub-master) and/or door access that may have access to equipment, vehicles, storage areas, central warehouses, guest rooms, or offices.
- Supervisory jobs, those hired as or promoted to a Basic, Intermediate or Advanced Supervisor.
- Hooper Youth Program Instructors.
- Building Managers
- Those with functions for which, upon consultation between Human Resources and the hiring authority, a criminal background check is determined to be required.

A candidate being considered for one of these positions is required to complete an Authorization to Release Criminal Information for Employment Purposes Form. The Union prohibits discrimination based on arrest or conviction record in compliance with provisions of the Wisconsin Fair Employment Act; each situation is evaluated individually. However, failure to accurately complete the required form is grounds for immediate termination or removal from the hiring process.

CHILD LABOR PERMITS

All employees under the age of 18 are required under state law to obtain a Child Labor Permit before starting a job at the Wisconsin Union. Employees will need to bring it to Human Resources when an employee fills out employment paperwork. The Union will reimburse you the cost of the labor permit when it is turned in to Human Resources. Child Labor Permits may be obtained from any high school or Job Service Center in Wisconsin.

DRIVER'S AUTHORIZATION

The Wisconsin Union has positions that require a motor vehicle records check. This is for an employee to be covered by the State's Liability Protection while driving a state vehicle. Jobs that require driving as a condition of employment are posted with the requirement. Applicants being considered for a position are required to complete a Driver Authorization Form, available in the Training Resource Center. UW-Madison's Risk Management Office conducts the motor vehicle records check to see if you are an eligible driver. US, US Territories, or Canadian licenses are only accepted for driver's authorization. Out-of-state licenses or a Wisconsin license held for less than three years requires a driver to complete a Notarized Statement of their driving record and have the form notarized. The process is initiated by the employee's supervisor and may take up to 10 working days to process. If not approved, the supervisor will receive an e-mail with the reason for being rejected. If Risk Management determines that an employee cannot be approved to drive a state vehicle and driving is a condition of employment, termination or not being hired may result.

KEY & DOOR ACCESS

Employees requiring keys for their jobs are responsible for the safety and return of the keys, as they are University property. Any lost or stolen keys need to be reported immediately to supervisor. Upon resignation or termination, keys must be returned to their supervisor or Human Resources.

OBTAINING KEYS: Units are accessed by card swipe or key. When a new employee is hired, the supervisor initiates the process of requesting what keyring(s) the employee will remove from the KeyWatcher box. Once this information is entered into the database, the supervisor is notified and then shows the employee how to remove/return the assigned keyring(s). Keyrings are NOT to be removed from the building and must be returned to the KeyWatcher box at the end of each shift.

OBTAINING KEYS FOR SATELLITE DELIS AND MARKETS: Employees working at delis and markets, within non-Union campus buildings will be notified by their supervisor of where and when to pick up keys.

PAYROLL INFORMATION

OVERTIME & HOLIDAY PAY

OVERTIME PAY

Overtime is based on the Fair Labor and Standards Act (FLSA) of employees working 40 hours per week. The Wisconsin Union tries to save costs by limiting the amount of overtime paid. Student employees must have their supervisor's approval before the employee can work over 40 hours.

- After approval, you're paid at one and half times your average rate of pay.
- If employed elsewhere on campus, you are still limited to 40 hours per week and need your supervisor's permission for any overtime

HOLIDAY PAY

The Wisconsin Union pays student hourly employees holiday pay for state sanctioned holidays. (Hooper employees are currently not paid holiday pay.) If you work at another department on campus this may not be the case.

- Student employees are paid time and half on holidays.
- State holidays are: Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Eve and Day, New Year's Eve and Day, Martin Luther King Day, Memorial Day and July Fourth. (The Union is typically closed between Christmas Eve and New Year's Day.)

FICA WITHHOLDING (SOCIAL SECURITY DEDUCTIONS)

UW System students who are registered and take a minimum of a half-time course load are exempt from FICA withholding, also known as Social Security and Medicare Taxes. (Half-time status is defined as taking six credits for undergraduates; four credits for non-dissertator graduate students; and three credits for dissertators.) This exemption allows student employees to save 7.65% from being deducted from their paychecks. The one exception to this rule is if a student is in their last semester and only needs less than half time credit load for their degree. During summer, students who are not enrolled and attending classes are not exempt from the FICA withholding. Students who are enrolled and attending classes during the summer may be exempt from FICA withholding, based on the number of credits students are attending and length of the class attending. Non UW System students have FICA withheld from their paychecks.

WORK STUDY PROGRAM

The Wisconsin Union is highly committed to the work-study program, a federally funded program in which the government and employer share the student's payroll costs. If a student receives work-study, it will automatically be applied to any student hourly position at the Union. Students earn their work-study funds and are paid through direct deposit like any other employee. If a student uses up their work-study funds, while employed at the Union, there is no need to worry about losing their job, it will continue. If a student works at more than one department on campus, they can choose to apply all or part of their work-study funds towards the Union; otherwise both departments will use the funds concurrently. If a student needs to limit the use of work-study funds to either department, they must contact the Work-Study Office.

EARNINGS STATEMENT

Earnings statements are available on MyUW under the Work Record tab. Statements can be viewed two days before a paycheck will be issued. A history of earning statements is also available under the work record tab.

COMPUTER & SOFTWARE USAGE

Appropriate use of UW-Madison information technology resources access to electronic mail, the Internet, databases, computers, and other information technology (IT) resources is essential to the mission of the UW-Madison (to create, integrate, transfer and apply knowledge), and the achievement of excellence requires their effective use by all members of the University community. Use of information technology must be consistent with the University's mission and with its role as a public agency. Each member of the University community is expected to protect the integrity of these resources and to know and adhere to University rules, regulations, and guidelines for their appropriate use. Regulations that govern personal conduct and use of University facilities* also apply to the use of IT resources. In addition, the following policy applies more specifically to use of IT resources:

1. GENERAL GUIDELINES - Access to University IT resources is a privilege granted to members of the University community which carries with it the responsibility to use them for University related activities, exercising common sense and civility.
2. INDIVIDUAL RESPONSIBILITY - Authorization for use of IT facilities is provided to each individual for his or her own use. No person may use an authorization which belongs to someone else. In many cases the University has obtained access to these resources exclusively for the use of members of the University community.
3. SECURITY - The protection of University IT resources depends heavily on each user's careful handling of "keys" to these resources, since any account can serve as an entry point for theft, damage, or unauthorized use. Users must protect the confidentiality of their personal identification codes and passwords and are expected to exercise reasonable care to ensure that others cannot use their accounts.
4. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY - Illegal downloading, distribution, copying of copyrighted materials or other activities that violate copyright law are strictly prohibited.
5. 'HACKING' - Persons may not obtain or use--or attempt to obtain or use--passwords, IP addresses or other network codes that have not been assigned to them as individuals or authorized for their use as University employees. Persons may not obtain--or attempt to obtain--unauthorized access to computer accounts, software, files, or any other University IT resources.
6. MALICIOUS ACTIVITY - Persons may not alter or intentionally damage software or data belonging to someone else or interfere with another person's authorized access to IT resources. Users may not intentionally disrupt or damage University computers or networks in any way.

7. IMPERSONATION AND ANONYMITY - Users of University IT resources may not send electronic messages with the sender's identity forged or send anonymous messages unless the recipient has agreed to receive anonymous messages.

8. COMMERCIAL, POLITICAL, AND NON-UNIVERSITY ACTIVITIES - Persons may not use University IT resources to sell or solicit sales for any goods, services or contributions unless such use conforms to UW-Madison rules and regulations governing the use of University resources. University employees may not use these resources to support the nomination of any person for political office or to influence a vote in any election or referendum. No one may use University IT resources to represent the interests of any non-University group or organization unless authorized by an appropriate University department.

9. DE MINIMIS USAGE - In the interest of making the use of IT resources a natural part of the day-to-day learning and work of all members of the University community, incidental personal use is tolerated. However, one should use non-University sources of e-mail, Internet access, and other IT services for activities of an extensive nature that are not related to University purposes.

10. FEDERAL AND STATE LAWS - Persons may not use University computing facilities to violate state or federal laws.

* as published in the UW System Administrative Code and UW-Madison policies.

SOFTWARE AND HARDWARE USAGE: The UW-Madison has set guidelines to cover information technology resources on all computers owned or leased by the University and all private computers on University property. The University does not require, request, or condone copying or any other use of software in violation of the application license agreement.

Intentional violation of terms of the software license agreement are not within the scope of University employment.

Campus violations should be reported to Badger Incident Response Team (BadgIRT) online at www.doit.wisc.edu/security/report_incident/.

All computers, software, and hardware used on computers owned by the Union or computers used on behalf of the Union must be acquired by the Union's Information Systems manager. Failure to follow these guidelines may result in disciplinary actions up to and including termination. In addition, individuals who violate software license agreements or misuse hardware may be subject to civil and criminal proceedings.

DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

The UW-Madison states all student hourly positions are at-will positions and may be terminated at any time provided the reason is not prohibited by law. At the Wisconsin Union, student employees will not be disciplined or discharged except for just cause. Violation of Union or unit work rules are subject to disciplinary action which may range from a reprimand to immediate discharge. Disciplinary actions are imposed for work rule violations based on the particular violation(s) and the work history of an employee.

Student employees are encouraged to first communicate any dissatisfaction regarding their employment to their supervisor. Formal complaints can be made through the grievance process; forms are available from their supervisor or Human Resources.

DUAL EMPLOYMENT

Employees may seek another job in the Wisconsin Union, becoming a dual employee, by filling out a Wisconsin Union employment application. Only jobs that do not conflict with the other job's hours or create a conflict of interest are approved. Employees who are in good standing and receive approval from their current supervisor and the new job's supervisor will obtain dual employment once the application is turned into Human Resources.

GRIEVANCE PROCESS

The Wisconsin Union is committed to its student employees. If an employee feels they have been treated unfairly or disagree with an action taken relating to work issues, such as unreasonable application of work rules, incorrect compensation, or discriminatory treatment, employees can go through the grievance process. Employees should talk to their supervisor about any issue or concerns they are having. Employees can contact Human Resources if the issues or concerns are not resolved or if they think the resolution was not appropriate.

STEPS TO THE GRIEVANCE PROCESS:

Step 1

- Employee fills out a Grievance Form and submits it to their supervisor within a week of the condition or action giving rise to the complaint.
- Supervisor will meet with the employee to discuss the issues presented in the complaint within a week (seven days) to clarify and/or solve the problem; supervisor will also begin to investigate the situation as necessary after this meeting.
- Supervisor's decision will be documented on the Grievance Form and returned to the employee within a week of the meeting.

Step 2

- If an employee is dissatisfied with the decision reached, they should contact their area's Assistant Director within a week (seven days) of when the decision was returned.
- Assistant Director will meet with the employee and their supervisor as soon as possible;

Assistant Director may further investigate after this meeting.

- Assistant Director's decision will be also be documented on the Grievance Form and returned to the employee within a week of the meeting.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

The Wisconsin Union understands the needs of University students and allows student employees to take a leave of absence up to six months, provided the student is in good standing. The steps to the leave of absence process are:

1. Employee requests leave in writing to supervisor at least two weeks prior to leave date. Request should include reason and duration.
2. Supervisor reviews requests and approves or denies.
3. Supervisor contacts Human Resources and then maintains a copy of approved or denied request.
4. Student will be temporarily terminated during leave for payroll purposes.
5. At end of leave student contacts supervisor for permission to return.
6. Supervisor will contact Human Resources to reinstate student and notify of return to employment.

Based on availability, lockers and a lock will be furnished by the Wisconsin Union upon request. Contact your supervisor to request a lock and locker.

LOST & FOUND

The Wisconsin Union is responsible to our members, guests, customers, and employees to administrate a Lost and Found program that ensures found items are secured until such time as they are claimed by their owners. When an item is discovered, it is the obligation of all staff and volunteers to immediately turn the item into Lost and Found, located at Memorial Union's Campus Information Desk or at Union South's Campus Information Desk.

- Inform your supervisor what item(s) you have turned into Lost and Found.

implement current instructions.

PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS

Performance evaluations should be conducted with an employee at least once a year, typically during the spring semester, and are to be reviewed with student employees. The goal of a performance evaluation is for supervisors to review their expectations and provide feedback to employees on their performance, such as what is going well and what could be improved. Employees will be evaluated using the following relevant topics when conducting a performance review: 1) Attendance/Punctuality 2) Supervisor/Co-worker Relations 3) Customer Service 4) Job Knowledge/Task Completion. In addition, other topics may include, but are not limited to Judgment/Problem-Solving, Safety/Sanitation, Cash Handling, Decision Making Skills, Quantity/Quality of Work and Student Supervisory Skills. After a performance evaluation, a raise may be given, responsibilities may be added, or a promotion may be arranged, but is not required.

RATE CHANGES

Rate changes are at the discretion of the supervisor and are only effective at the beginning of a biweekly pay period and will not be backdated unless extraordinary circumstances apply. Types of rate changes:

- Performance ($.25 per fiscal year) increases are determined by a student's contribution to the unit's performance objectives.
- Learning Skills ($.25 per fiscal year) increases are determined by students training for different job duties or learning new skills or job tasks. The new task, duty, or skill is within the same employment level and is not a promotion.
- Promotional increases are based on the progression from one employment level to another. If the awarding of a promotional increase is given due to additional job responsibilities, working hard to fill shifts, etc and the employee is no longer able to perform the job duties, the employee's rate of pay will return to their previous rate.
- Critical increases are given when it is necessary to make salary adjustments for exceptional reasons other than merit or promotion. These adjustments can occur with the approval of an Assistant Director and Human Resources.

Performance and learning skills increases are limited to $.50 increase per fiscal year, $.25 for each type. Promotions and critical rate increase are not included in the $.50 limit. Hooper student employees rate increases are generally determined by Hooper clubs and may have different criteria. All required trainings must be completed in order to receive any performance or learning skills rate change.

HEALTH, SAFETY & SECURITY INFORMATION

FOOD EMPLOYEE ILLNESS REPORTING

The Union must prevent the transmission of diseases via food by infected food service employees, with emphasis on illnesses due to Salmonella typhi, Shigella spp., E. coli and Hepatitis A Virus. It is the responsibility of all food service employees to notify their supervisor when they have been medically diagnosed with a food borne illness or when they experience any of the symptoms typical of a food borne illness. It will then be the responsibility of the supervisor to take appropriate steps to prevent the transmission of any actual or potential food borne illness.

MEDICAL DIAGNOSIS:

Food service employees must report to their supervisor when a physician, physician's assistant, or nurse practitioner has diagnosed them as being ill with:

- Salmonella typhi (Typhoid fever)
- Shigella spp. (Shigellosis)
- Escherichia coli (O157:H7 infection)
- Hepatitis A (Hepatitis A virus)
- Salmonella spp. (Non-typhoid)
- Entamoeba histolytica
- Campylobacter spp.
- Calicivirus
- Cryptosporidium spp.
- Giardia spp.
- Yersinia spp.
- Staphylococcus aureus
- Listeria monocytogenes

SYMPTOMS AND PUSTULAR LESIONS:

Any of the following symptoms or lesions experienced by food service employees must be reported to a supervisor: diarrhea, vomiting, fever, sore throat with fever, and lesions containing pus on the hand, wrist, or an exposed body part (such as boils and infected wounds, however small).

FOOD CODE COMPLIANCE

To help prevent the spread of diseases, all food service employees must:

- Be knowledgeable of and follow these reporting requirements.
- Adhere to any work restrictions or exclusions imposed by your supervisor to prevent the transmission of any actual or potential food borne illness.
- Follow good hygienic and food protection practices.

LEFTOVER FOOD & BEVERAGES

The Wisconsin Union is responsible for protecting the health and safety of our members, guests, customers and employees from food related illnesses. When a catered event has leftover food, perishable food must be handled as follows:

- Leftover food may be made available to employees only when a supervisor or event manager has determined the food cannot be used again.
- Leftovers are determined by a supervisor or event manager only after all customers of a catered event have departed.
- Leftovers are not to be made available in public areas, only in designated areas.
- Employees in the work unit are given preference in distributing leftover food.
- Remaining leftovers that are available are offered to other employees working in the immediate vicinity of the event at the discretion of manager on duty.
- Employees are not permitted to take leftovers home.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY ACT

The Occupational Health and Safety Act (OSHA) is based on federal and state laws with oversight that assures safe and healthy working conditions for all employees. It authorizes enforcement of the standards by assisting and encouraging states in their efforts to assure safe and healthful working conditions by providing for research, information, education, and training in the field of occupational safety and health. For further information, contact Human Resources and read The Wisconsin Union's Health and Safety Handbook.

PERSONAL PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT

The Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) requires the Wisconsin Union to assess the workplace to determine if hazards are present, making the use of Personnel Protective Equipment (PPE) necessary. Each unit in the Union has determined what and if any PPE is necessary for each employee. If such hazards are present in your work unit, your supervisor shall:

- Select the types of PPE that will protect you from the identified hazards.
- Communicate selection decisions to you.
- Select PPE that properly fits you.
- Certify through a written assessment that the workplace has been evaluated and when the written hazard assessment took place.

Various equipment is needed to protect an employee's eyes, face, head, feet and hands. All employees will be trained on the equipment needed to perform their job duties.

PROBLEM PATRONS (THREATS - PHYSICAL OR VERBAL)

The Wisconsin Union is responsible for protecting the safety of our members, guests, customers, and employees and to make sure the facilities and activities are not compromised by disorderly or unauthorized individuals.

As the Union is a membership organization, designated staff may ask individuals for appropriate proof of eligibility:

- Student or Staff University ID
- Union Membership Card
- Union or University Guest Card

If a guest is disrupting or disturbing a Wisconsin Union Member, they will be considered a Problem Patron. If this happens:

- Call Campus Information Desk at Memorial Union 265-3000 or at Union South, 890-3000
- Monitor the situation
- Building or Event Manager will handle the situation
- Call UW Police (911) if situation is not resolved or escalates

Employees who exhibit such behavior will be held accountable under University policy and rules, as well as local, state, and federal law.

All threats and acts of aggressive or violent behavior should be taken seriously. Acts of violence, or threats of imminent violence, require an immediate response. Please dial 911 in any of these events. In the event of other threats, supervisors should be informed so they may investigate the situation.
